Guidelines for Completing the Scheduling Order Checklist

As part of the Rule 26(f) Report, the parties MUST complete and return the attached Scheduling Order Checklist. In completing this checklist, the parties should be guided by the following general timeline for scheduling in this Court, as well as any applicable federal or local rules. Of course, the parties are free to request any compression or extension of these general guidelines that they feel is warranted by the facts of a particular case.

It is generally easiest to work backwards when completing this checklist. The parties must first decide a date upon which their case will be ready for trial (the month and year will suffice). Civil trials in this Court generally begin on the second and fourth Tuesday of each month. Once a trial date is decided, the following general rules apply:

1. The Final Pretrial Conference should be set on a Friday 2 weeks before the Trial.
2. The Joint Final Pretrial Conference Order is due 1 week before the Final Pretrial Conference.
3. Pretrial Disclosures pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(3), Jury Instructions, Voir Dire, Verdict Forms, and Motions in Limine are all due 1 month before the Final Pretrial Conference. Objections to the same are due 2 weeks before the Final Pretrial Conference.
4. Dispositive Motions must be filed 10 weeks before the Final Pretrial Conference.
5. The Discovery Completion date should be 1 month before Dispositive Motions are due.
6. Examinations/Inspections should be completed 8 weeks before Discovery Completion.

7. Expert Disclosures by the party with the burden should be made 8 weeks before Discovery Completion.
8. Expert Disclosures by the party without the burden should be made 4 weeks before Discovery Completion.
9. Any Joinder and/or Amendments must be made 10 weeks before Discovery Completion.
10. Mediation must be completed 1 week before the Final Pretrial Conference.
11. Intermediate Pretrial Conferences are always upon request. If a situation arises which the parties feel warrants an intermediate pretrial conference, then the parties are free to so move.

Upon receipt of the parties' Rule 26(f) Report and Scheduling Order Checklist, the Court will review the parties' proposed dates and verify that there are no conflicts with the Court's existing schedule. If a conflict does exist, the Court will change the parties' proposed date to the nearest date/time which the Court can accommodate. The Court will inform the parties of any changes at the telephonic Scheduling Conference. If the parties do not wish to have a telephonic scheduling conference and choose to waive the same, then the Court will simply enter a Scheduling Order containing the parties' proposed dates as modified by the Court. Any objections to the Court's Scheduling Order can be raised via motion.
